

Contents

Acknowledgement	7
Introduction	9
Part I. The first principles and Theoria	17
1.1. Consciousness and realism in Thomas MacGreevy's poetry . . .	19
1.2. Consciousness and analogy	32
1.3. Theophany without metaphor	59
1.4. Consciousness and beauty	65
1.5. Consciousness and spirituality	74
1.6. Poussin and Jack B. Yeats – The image of the self	93
1.7. The image of the creator	101
1.8. "God's image" – In-between metaphysics and poetry	106
Part II. Return to poetry	125
2.1. In-between W. B. Yeats and James Joyce	127
2.2. Consciousness and signs	138
2.3. Return to reality – Irish metaphysics	145
2.4. Aestheticism and Apocalypse	163
2.5. Recapitulation of Gaeldom	167
2.6. Behind the front line of history	182
2.7. Apocalypse of unlikeness	188
2.8. The Oracle	206
2.9. Diction and meaning in the poetry of MacGreevy and his contemporaries	225
Conclusion: Beauty and poetry	243
Bibliography	251
Summary	255
Streszczenie	256